Privacy Notice

We currently collect and process names, contact details, and donation and membership subscription information. The personal information we process is provided to us directly by you because you have made a donation, applied to become an associate member of the Trust and/or you have asked us to keep you updated about the Trust's activities, events and initiatives. Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the lawful basis we rely on for processing this information is your consent, which you can withdraw at any time by contacting the Trust using the addresses/phone number above. We use the information you have given us to record donations, administer your associate membership and/or to keep you updated about our activities. We do not share this information with anyone else. Your information is securely stored on the electronic and hard copy filing systems of our membership secretary and treasurer. We keep this information for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was collected. Unless you ask us not to, we will review and delete your information from our membership records if you have not renewed your membership with us for 5 years. We will dispose of your information by securely deleting it from our electronic and hard copy records.

Under data protection law, you have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information and to ask us to rectify information you think is inaccurate and to complete information you think is incomplete. You have the right to ask us to erase your information and to restrict the processing of your information, in certain circumstances. You have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances. You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you. Please get in touch, using the contact details above, if you wish to make a request. If you are unhappy with how we have used your data, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Helpline no: 0303 1231113.
